

Thank you for joining ICFLA's Group and Team Coaching Special Interest Group. In order to make the most out of this SIG, please:

- Engage in the 90 minute SIG as you would with your clients. Distractions away, webcams on.
- Please log in from your computer or download zoom on your phone as we will break out into groups at the end of the session.
- Please share your insights and questions in a compelling and concise 30 seconds or less and be conscientious with how often you speak in the large group.
- Bring your questions and your insights, this is a highly interactive SIG and we appreciate your engagement.
- Download the ICF Team Competencies if you have not already.

February 23rd 1030 am-12 pm Pacific: Leveraging ICF Team Competencies

What changes in your coaching agreements and coaching practice when you are working with a team? In our first Group & Team Coaching Special Interest Group for the year, we'll explore the new ICF Team Competencies and how those apply to your practice.

Please attend this highly interactive SIG with webcams on, as you will be placed into discussion groups after introductory remarks. As it is our first special interest group of the year, we'll also be voting on preferred topics and methods for the Group & Team Special Interest Group for 2021

- Determine and discuss the difference between Team Coaching, Group Coaching, and other types of facilitation
- Create awareness on the updated ICF Core Competencies and the new ICF Team Competencies
- Share best practices and challenges related to Group & Team Coaching

Designing SIGs

We will dedicate some time in this SIG to determining the topics and formats for the rest of the SIGs. In 2020 we had discussions, case studies, a group coaching demonstration, and a panel so please think about your preferred formats in addition to topics.
